Staff Report for Casting Call

Students with knowledge of the Bible may want to head to Cleveland this Saturday, as The American Bible Challenge will be holding an open casting call for its upcoming third season.

The American Bible challenge is a Bible-based game show by Game Show Network that was created in 2012. On the show, teams of three contestants compete to win up to $140,000 for a charity of their choice.

Teams generally have a theme of some sort — the members may share a background or profession, for example.

GSN is looking for enthusiastic and energetic participants who have a passion for the Bible. Interested parties can audition from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday at the Doubletree by Hilton in downtown Cleveland, 1111 Lakeside Ave. East.

Email inquiries can be sent to BibleChallenge2014@gmail.com.

The show, hosted by Jeff Foxworthy, is on Thursdays at 9 p.m. and will soon return for its third season. It is divided into six rounds, which involve different games and challenges.
